

IVE Junior Marine Engineer – smouton@fr.perenco.com

Background

The construction division of PERENCO SERVICES operates mainly in Netherland and West Africa, and on the spot in other international countries.

Our main activities are upgrade and conversion of jack-ups, diving barges, pipe laying barges and FSO/FPSO.

The construction department covers all aspects from engineering, project organization, procurement and construction works.

Position Title

Junior Marine Engineer

Contract:

IVE

Location

Based in London with international travels

Starting Date

ASAP

The role

Actively support projects managed by the construction division of PERENCO SERVICES.

Tasks and Responsibilities

Engineering: Prepare technical specifications and calculation notes required for the intended modification of the units

Project Execution: Develop the planning, budget, execution strategy

Procurement: Prepare technical specifications and liaise with supplier for the procurement of equipment and services

Construction: Actively participate on site (shipyard / offshore) in the coordination of the construction and provide detailed reporting

Skills

Essentials:

- Engineering degree in naval / marine / offshore field
- Ship design: structure / stability / 2D&3D modelisation
- Proficiency in MS Office programs, CAD, Design Software
- Good level in English

Desirable:

- Ship Systems: Electrical / Hydraulic / Mechanical
- Understanding of French Working Culture